Notes of the Registry	Orders of the Tribunal
	14.02.2022 Hon'ble Mr. Justice Umesh Chandra Srivastava, Member (J) Hon'ble Vice Admiral Abhay Raghunath Karve, Member (A) Memo of appearance filed by Shri Vishvesh Kumar, Advocate, on behalf of respondents is taken on record. Office is directed to show his name as learned counsel for the respondents on the next date of listing. Heard Shri Shailendra Kumar Singh, Ld. Counsel for the applicant and Shri Vishvesh Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the respondents. The Original Application has been filed with delay of twenty three years and thirteen days. Regarding delay the submission of the Ld. Counsel for the applicant is that it is a pensionary matter in which bar of limitation is not applicable. His further submission is that applicant has explained the delay in affidavit filed in support of application and, in view of this, delay is liable to be condoned. Ld. Counsel for the respondents has vehemently opposed the prayer saying there being inordinate delay in filing the Original Application and explanation for day to day delay offered by the applicant being not sufficient, application should be dismissed. Undisputedly, it is a pensionary matter in which cause of action does not accrue on a fixed date. The matter being a case of continuing wrong, cause of action accrues from month to month. Considering this aspect and explanation of delay offered by the applicant, being sufficient, as seems, delay deserves to be condoned. In the result, delay condonation application is allowed. O.A. Counsel for the applicant and Shri Anurag Mishra, Ld. Counsel for the respondents assisted by Sqn. Ldr. Ashutosh Pandey, Departmental Representative. This application has been filed against the order of respondents by which he has been discharged from service. Compensation has also been claimed. There is a delay of 07 years, 06 months and 21 days in filing Original Application. Submission of learned counsel for the applicant is that delay in filing of Original Application is not deliberate or intentional. The applicant was discharged from service in an illegal and unfair manner. Further submission is that it is a case of continuing wrong wherein cause of action accrues every month. No written objection has been filed against delay in filing application despite time being sought and granted. During the course of hearing, learned counsel for the respondents submitted that there is a long delay of 07 years, 06 months and 21 days and the same has not been satisfactorily explained. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, we find that cause shown is sufficient. Accordingly, delay is condoned. Delay condonation application stands disposed off. O.A. No. 834 of 2021 Heard. The case needs adjudication. Admit. Notice to the respondents has already been issued and they have already put in their appearance.
