Counsel for the respondents that part implementation of the order has already been done and so far as service element is concerned, the matter has already been processed. He further submits that PS Directorate, who is to implement the order, being in process of shifting, the order could not be implemented, therefore, four weeks further time be granted to implement complete order. We have gone through the order which is passed on 08.08.2017 and, looking to this, reason assigned by the respondents for not implementing the order does not seem justified. However, considering the request of Ld. Counsel for the respondents, four weeks further time is granted on payment of Rs.20,000/- as cost with condition that if the order is not complied with within the given time, the officer concerned of the PS Directorate shall remain present in person in Tribunal to explain for non compliance of the order. Respondents are further directed to deposit the entire cost due against them by the next date fixed. List on 16.02.2022. Let copy of this order be provided to the Ld. 	03.01.2022 Hon'ble Mr. Justice Umesh Chandra Srivastava, Member (J) Hon'ble Vice Admiral Abhay Raghunath Karve, Member (A) Heard Shri Pankaj Kumar Shukla, Ld. Counsel for the applicant and Shri Ashish Kumar Singh, Ld. Counsel for the respondents. Shri Rajiv Tiwari, Accounts Officer, Principal Controller of Defence Accounts (Pension), Prayagraj (Allahabad) is also present. It is submitted by the Ld. Counsel for the applicant that in compliance of the order dated 17.10.2018 in Original Application No. 225 of 2018 the P.P.O. was issued on 28.05.2019 entitling applicant to draw interest on arrears from 04.12.2014 and, accordingly, interest was credited in applicant's account. However, after two years of the issuance of the aforesaid P.P.O. a Corrigendum P.P.O. has been issued on 16.07.2021 directing therein that interest on arrears is payable with effect from the date of order i.e. 17.10.2018. He submits that once the P.P.O. being issued in terms of the order the respondents could not have issued a Corrigendum P.P.O. stating therein that interest will be payable from the date of order, more so, when there is nothing like so in the order itself. He further submits that in compliance of the subsequent P.P.O. the Bank will recover interest already paid to the applicant with effect from 04.12.2014, therefore, a direction be issued to Principal Controller of Defence Accounts (Pension), Prayagraj (Allahabad) to withdraw/cancel the Corrigendum P.P.O. with further direction to Bank not to recover the interest which has already been paid to the applicant. In reply, the Ld. Counsel for the respondents submitted that Corrigendum P.P.O. has been issued strictly in terms of order dated 17.10.2018. Upon hearing submissions of Ld. Counsel for both sides and after perusing the order dated 17.10.2018 in Original Application No. 255 of 2018 we find that first P.P.O. issued in the matter entitling applicant to draw interest on arrears with effect from 04.12.2014 is perfectly justified. Therefore, Corrigendum P.P.O. which has been issued by the respondents stating therein that interest is payable from the date of order i.e. 17.10.2018 is totally uncalled for and needs to be withdrawn. Accordingly, respondents are directed to withdraw/cancel the Corrigendum P.P.O. dated 16.07.2021 and to issue direction to Bank to not recover the interest amount already paid to applicant in terms of 1st P.P.O. In view of above, order seems to be completely complied with. Accordingly, Execution Application is dismissed being infructuous. (Vice Admiral Abhay Raghunath Karve) (Justice Umesh Chandra Srivastava) Member (A) Member (J) AKD/-

	03.01.2022 Hon'ble Mr. Justice Umesh Chandra Srivastava, Member (J) Hon'ble Vice Admiral Abhay Raghunath Karve, Member (A) The file has been placed before us by Circulation. As per office note, there is no delay in filing Review Application, however, an application for condonation of delay has been moved which being not required is dismissed. The Review Applicants – Union of India and Others have filed this application under Rule 18 of the Armed Forces Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 2008 by which applicants have prayed for review and setting aside the judgement and order dated 19.07.2021 of this Tribunal passed in Original Application No.239 of 2021 on the ground that the Tribunal did not consider the matter of fact that in proposed Re-Survey Medical Board there should be restriction of arrears upto three years prior to filing instant Original Application if disease assessed in proposed R.S.M.B.. The operating portion of the order reads as under:- “In view of the above, the Original Application No. 239 of 2021 deserves to be allowed, hence, allowed. The impugned orders dated 19.08.1997, 03.04.2003, 06.02.2013 and 10.12.2018, rejecting the claim of the applicant, are set aside. The disability of the applicant is held as aggravated by Army Service. The applicant is entitled to get disability element @30% for two years which would be rounded off to 50% for two years from the date of his discharge. The respondents are directed to grant disability element to the applicant @30% for two years which would stand rounded off to 50% for two years from the date of discharge. The respondents are further directed to conduct a Re-Survey Medical Board for the applicant to assess his further entitlement of disability element of disability pension. Respondents are further directed to give effect to the order within four months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order failing which the respondents shall have to pay interest @ 8% per annum till the date of actual payment.” It is a settled proposition of law that the scope of the review is limited and until it is shown that there is error apparent on the face of record in the judgment and order sought to be reviewed, the same cannot be reviewed. For ready reference, Order 47, Rule 1 sub-rule (1) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 is reproduced below :-

“1. Application for review of judgment.- (1) any person considering himself aggrieved-

(a) by a decree or order from which an appeal is allowed, but from which no appeal has been preferred,

(b) by a decree or order from which no appeal is allowed, or

(c) by a decision on a reference from a Court of Small Causes, and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence, was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the decree was passed or order made, or on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record , or for any other sufficient reason, desires to obtain a review of the decree passed or order made against him, may apply for a review of judgment to the Court which passed the decree or made the order.”

In view of the principles of law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in various decisions, it is settled that the scope of review jurisdiction is very limited and re-hearing is not permissible. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Para 9 of its judgment in the case of Parsion Devi and others vs. Sumitri Devi and others, reported in (1997) 8 Supreme Court Cases 715, has observed as under :-

“9. Under Order 47, Rule 1 CPC a judgment may be open to review inter alia if there is a mistake or an error apparent on the face of the record. An error which is not self- evident and has to be detected by a process of reasoning, can hardly be said to be an error apparent on the face of the record justifying the court to exercise its power of review under Order 47, Rule 1 CPC. In exercise of the jurisdiction under Order 47, Rule 1 CPC it is not permissible for an erroneous decision to be "reheard and corrected". There is a clear distinction between an erroneous decision and an error apparent on the face of the record. While the first can be corrected by the higher forum, the latter only can be corrected by exercise of the review jurisdiction. A review petition has a limited purpose and cannot be allowed to be "an appeal in disguise."

We have gone through the judgment and order sought to be reviewed and no illegality or irregularity or error apparent on the face of record being found therein, we are of the view that there is no force in the grounds taken in the review application so that order may be reviewed.

In the result, Review Application is rejected.
