	of the respondents is taken on record.
	Heard Shri Vinay Pandey, Ld. Counsel for the applicant and Ms. Deepti Prasad Bajpai, Ld. Counsel for the respondents.
	Applicant has filed this Original Application for the grant of pensionary benefit under MACP applicable with effect from 01.06.2006.
	There being delay of 13 years, 08 months and 13 days (4933 days) in filing of Original Application, an application, supported with affidavit, for condonation of delay has been filed.
	Ld. Counsel for the applicant submits that bar of limitation is not applicable in pensionary matter. He further submits that delay in filing of Original Application is not deliberate.
	Ld. Counsel for the respondents has vehemently opposed the prayer.
	Upon hearing submissions of Ld. Counsel of both sides and considering the fact that bar of limitation is not applicable in pensionary matter, we find that cause shown is sufficient. Accordingly, delay is condoned. Delay condonation application stands disposed off.

	1. Heard Shri Rohit Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the applicant and Shri Kaushik Chatterjee, Ld. Counsel for the respondents.
	2. This Tribunal, vide its order dated 01.10.2021 in O.A. No. 525 of 2021, Nk (Musician) Kishan Kumar vs Chief of Army Staff & Ors, has while disposing off the O.A. directed the respondents to treat the original application as statutory complaint and decide the same within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of copy of original application by a speaking and reasoned order under intimation to the applicant. When the statutory complaint was not decided within the given time an execution application for execution of order dated 01.10.2021 was filed on 27.01.2022 wherein vide order dated 01.02.2022 the respondents were asked to decide the statutory complaint preferred by the applicant within two weeks from the date of order. It was also provided in the order that if statutory complaint is not decided within the given time of two weeks the officer responsible for the implementation of the order shall file his personal affidavit stating the reasons for non-compliance of the order. Despite the same, neither the order has been complied with nor personal affidavit of the officer responsible for implementation of the order has been filed rather a request has been made today to grant two weeks further time to decide the statutory complaint.
	3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that respondents are deliberately not deciding the statutory complaint preferred by the applicant with a view to promote someone who is junior to him to the post of Havildar in Army Medical Corps in musician trade. He further submits that meeting of Departmental Promotion Committee has already been held in the matter and also result is likely to be declassified very soon.
	4. We are told by the Legal Cell during course of hearing that Director PS2, Directorate of Personal Services, AG's Branch, IHQ of MoD (Army), New Delhi is the officer responsible for implementation of the order.

5. In the circumstances, we find that respondents have failed to assign any reason why order has not been complied with. We, therefore, direct Director PS2, Directorate of Personal Services, AG's Branch, IHQ of MoD (Army), New Delhi to remain present in Tribunal in person on the next date fixed to explain why coercive measure be not taken against him for non compliance of the order. In the meantime respondents shall not promote any person junior to the post of Havildar in Army Medical Corps in Musician Trade, which includes those empanelled for promotion in the DPC ibid (para 3).

6. This order shall be communicated to the all concerned by the learned counsel of the respondents. A copy of order may be provided to Legal Cell also to ensure compliance.

7. List on 21.04.2022.
