Respondents were granted time to file objection, if any, on delay condonation application but no objection has been filed. 5. Heard. 6. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that delay in filing Original Application is neither deliberate nor intentional but it is due to reasons shown in affidavit annexed alongwith delay condonation application. In affidavit annexed alongwith delay condonation application, it is stated that appellant has moved post confirmation appeal on 30.04.2023 to the Chief of the Army Staff but of no avail. The appellant suffered injury on 02.07.2023 due to accident and was hospitalised and was under medical supervision. 7. We are of the view that reasons shown by the appellant are sufficient to condone the delay. Accordingly, application is allowed and delay in filing Original Application (Appeal) is condoned. Delay condonation application stands disposed of.
