Respondents were granted time to file objection on delay condonation application, but no objection has been filed.M.A. No. 2177 of 20233. There is delay of 02 years, 10 months and 08 days in filing Original Application. Applicant has moved application for condonation of delay.4. Submission of learned counsel for the applicant is that it is a pensionary matter in which bar of limitation is not applicable. His further submission is that delay in filing Original Application is not deliberate, but on account of reasons stated in affidavit filed in support of application.5. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents submits that delay in filing original application has not been properly explained.6. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.7. Considering that in matters involving recurring benefits bar of limitation is not applicable and grounds stated in affidavit filed in support of delay condonation application are genuine and sufficient, delay is liable to be condoned.8. Accordingly, delay in filing of application is condoned. Application stands decided accordingly.O.A. No. 1511 of 20239. He was not granted service pension for the DSC service as there is shortfall in service for grant of second service pension. In this regard, the applicant had submitted representation dated 01.02.2023 to respondent No 3 i.e. Records, Defence Security Corps, PIN-901227, C/o 56 APO which is pending with the respondents. 13. In view of the above, without entering into merits of the case we hereby dispose off the O.A. finally directing the respondents to decide the representation of the applicant dated 01.02.2023 by a speaking and reasoned order in accordance with law, if not already decided, within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and communicate the decision to the applicant, accordingly. 14.
