ORDER

1. The instant Original Application has been filed on behalf of the applicant under Section 14 of the Armed Forces Tribunal Act, 2007 for the following reliefs:-

“(I) To issue/pass an order or direction of appropriate nature to the respondents to condone the deficiency/short fall of 08 months and 10 days (250 days) of service in qualifying minimum period of 15 years to get second service pension for DSC service.

- (II) To issue/pass an order or direction of appropriate nature to the respondents to grant second service pension and other pensionary benefits to the applicant with effect from 01.02.1998 because date of discharge is 31.01.1998.
- (III) To pay the arrears along with interest @ 12% per annum or as deemed fit and proper by this Hon'ble Tribunal, till it is actually paid.
- (IV) To award any other relief as considered by this Hon'ble Tribunal deemed appropriate in favour of the applicant.
- (V) To allow this OA with cost.

2. Briefly stated facts are that applicant was initially enrolled in Indian Army on 19.03.1963 and was discharged from service w.e.f. 01.05.1982 after rendering 19 years, 01 month and 13 days of qualifying service for which he is in receipt of service pension. Thereafter, he was re-employed in Defence Security Corps (DSC) on 11.10.1983 and after rendering 14 years, 03 months and 20 days qualifying service, applicant was discharged from service on 31.01.1998 (AN) under the provisions of Army Rule 13 (3) I (i) (a). As per rule, 15 years of minimum service is required for second service pension, but as there was deficiency of 08 months & 10 days in qualifying service, applicant was not granted second service pension of DSC. Applicant has preferred the present O.A. for condoning the short fall in service for grant of second service pension for his services rendered in Defence Security Corps.

3. It is submitted by learned counsel for the applicant that as per Govt. of India, Ministry of Defence letter dated 14.08.2001 condonation of shortfall in qualifying service for grant of pension in respect of personnel below officers rank shortfall of 12 months in qualifying service is allowed. However, there being a shortfall of 08 months and 10 days in the case of applicant, shortfall was not condoned by the respondents in view of Govt. of India, Ministry of Defence letter dated 14.08.2001. In this regard, applicant submitted an appeal dated 11.06.2023 for grant of second service pension but the same has not been decided/replied by the respondents. Learned counsel for the applicant also relied upon Judgment of Armed Forces Tribunal (PB) New Delhi in the case of OA No. 1238/2016, Smt. Shama Kaur Versus Union of India & Others, decided on 01.10.2019, O.A. No. 540 of 2024, Ex Nk Damodar Khan vs. Union of India & Ors, decided on 14.02.2024 and the Hon'ble Apex Court judgment in the case of Union of India and another vs. Surender Singh Parmar in Civil Appeal No. 9389 of 2014, decided on 20.01.2015.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that Para 44 of Pension Regulations for the Army, Part - I, 2008, clearly says that grant of pensionary award to personnel of DSC shall be governed by the same Regulations as are applicable to personnel below officers' rank in the army except where they are inconsistent with the provisions of Regulations. Thus, he submits that Government of India, Ministry of Defence, letter dated 14.08.2001 being equally applicable in case of applicant also, deficiency of 08 months and 10 days in minimum qualifying service is liable to be condoned and applicant is entitled to second service pension.

5. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents has vehemently opposed and submitted that applicant on attaining the age of 57 years was discharged from DSC service w.e.f. 31.01.1998 (AN) under the provisions of Army Rule 13 (3) item I (i) (a) after rendering 14 years, 03 months and 21 days qualifying service for which he was paid service gratuity and retirement gratuity. Applicant is deficient of 08 months and 09 days for grant of second service pension. He submitted that in terms of Rule 132 of Pension Regulations for the Army, 1961 (Part-1) and Rule 47 of Pension Regulations for the Army 2008 (Part-1), 'unless otherwise provided for, the minimum qualifying service for earning a service pension is 15 years'. In the instant case, the applicant had rendered only 14 years, 03 months and 21 days qualifying service in DSC. Hence, he is not entitled for grant of second service pension for the service rendered by him in DSC. His case cannot be considered for condonation of deficiency in qualifying service for grant of second pension in terms of Govt of India, Ministry of Defence letter no. 14(2)/2011/D(Pen/Pol) dated 23 April 2012, as he is already in receipt of one service pension for the former service rendered by him in the Army. The intention behind condonation of service for grant of service pension being based on the policy that individual must not be left high and dry but should be eligible for at least one service pension and the same being not applicable for the second service pension in respect of DSC, Government of India has issued letter dated 20.06.2017 and clarified that 'no condonation shall be allowed for grant of second service pension'. Keeping in view this letter and also that there is deficiency of 08 months and 09 days in qualifying service, as such, applicant is not entitled to second service pension.

6. Having heard the submissions of learned counsel both sides and having gone through Rule 125 and 132 of Pension Regulations for the Army, 1961 (Part-1) read with Rule 44 and 47 of Pension Regulations for the Army, 2008 (Part-1), the Hon'ble Apex Court judgment in Union of India & Ors vs. Surinder Singh Parmar and Ors in Civil Appeal No. 9389/2014, decided on 20.01.2015 and the Hon'ble Delhi High Court judgment in Civil Writ Petition No. 2986/2024, Union of India & Ors, vs. Ex Nk Chinna Vedyappan, decided on 04.09.2024, we find that issue regarding condonation of deficiency in minimum qualifying service regarding service pension has been dealt with by different Benches of the Armed Forces Tribunal and it has been held therein that deficiency in qualifying service upto 1 year is condonable. Taking note of the above and also that there is deficiency of less than 1 year in qualifying service of the applicant and the said deficiency is condonable under Rule 125 of Pension Regulations for the Army, 1961 (Part-1) (Rule 44 of Pension Regulations Part-1, 2008), we find that applicant's claim regarding condonation in deficiency in qualifying service for the grant of second service pension deserves to be allowed.

7. Accordingly, Original Application is allowed. The shortfall of 08 months and 10 days in minimum qualifying service of the applicant in getting second service pension is condoned. Applicant is held entitled to get second service pension in DSC as well in addition to pension which he is already getting from the Army.

8. The respondents are directed to grant second service pension to the applicant from the next date of discharge from DSC service. However, due to law of limitations settled by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Shiv Dass vs. Union of India, reported in 2007 (3) SLR 445, the arrears of second service pension will be restricted to three years preceding the date of filing of the instant O.A. The date of filing of this Original Application is 20.02.2024. The respondents are directed to give effect to this order within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order. Default will invite interest @ 8% per annum till actual payment.

9. No order as to costs.

10. Misc. Application(s), pending if any, shall stand disposed off.
