.....Review Applicant

Versus

Union of India, through the Secretary, Ministry of Defence, South Block,
New Delhi.

.....Respondents

The applicant has filed this review application under Rule 18 of the Armed Forces Tribunal (Procedure Rules), 2008 by which she has prayed for review of the order dated 23.11.2021 passed by this Tribunal in Original Application No. 160 of 2020 stating therein that applicant is not entitled to interest on delayed payment of AGIF amount. However, applicant has filed this review application to review order dated 23.11.2021 and pay interest @ 18% p.a. on amount of Rs 75,210/-.

Grounds raised by learned counsel for the applicant have already been considered in detail in O.A. and it was made clear that applicant cannot raise the issue of nonpayment of interest on the amount of AGIF deduction. For convenience sake operative part of order dated 23.11.2021 is reproduced as under:-

“Once the fact regarding compliance being admitted and Execution Application being dismissed on account of full and final satisfaction, the applicant cannot raise the issue of nonpayment of interest on the amount of A.G.I.F. deduction saying respondents were under obligation to pay interest also. The relief claimed in Original Application being barred under law for not being pressed earlier, the Original Application is liable to be dismissed.”

Since the Tribunal has arrived to the conclusion that applicant is not entitled to interest on delayed payment of AGIF amount, this review application is liable to dismissed on the ground that it was already made clear that applicant is not entitled to interest.

Also, there appears no error apparent at the face of the record which may call for interference under order 41 Rule 2 Code of Civil Procedure.

The application is accordingly, rejected.
