ORDER*“Hon’ble Mr. Justice Umesh Chandra Srivastava, Member (J)”

1. Heard Shri C.S. Rawat and Shri Vivek Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the applicant and Shri Rajesh Sharma, Ld. Counsel for the respondents.
2. The instant Original Application has been filed under Section 14 of the Armed Forces Tribunal Act, 2007 for issuing directions to the respondents to condone the short fall service and grant second service pension to the applicant from the date of discharge from DSC i.e. 30.06.2015.
3. Briefly stated facts are that applicant was enrolled in the Indian Army on 02.03.1981 and after completing 15 years and 10 months of service he was discharged from service on 31.01.1997. He was re-enrolled in Defence Security Corps (DSC) on 05.08.2015, and after completing 14 years, 08 months and 26 days of service discharged from service on 30.06.2015 at the age of superannuation of 57 years under Rule 13 (3) Item I (i) (a) of the Army Rules, 1954. As per rules, 15 years of minimum service is required for second service pension, but as there was deficiency of about 03 months and 05 days in the case of applicant. The applicant has not been granted second service pension. It is in this perspective that the applicant has preferred the present Original Application.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the applicant that as per Regulation 44 of the Pension Regulations for the Army, 2008, (Part I), Ministry of Defence, Department of Defence letter dated 14.08.2001 and ADGPS letter dated 26.09.2003, condonation of shortfall in qualifying service for grant of pension in respect of personnel below officers rank from six months upto 12 months is allowed. However, there being a shortfall of about 03 months and 05 days in case of applicant shortfall was not condoned in view of Government of India, Ministry of Defence, letter No. 14(02)/2011-D (Pen/Pol) dated 20.06.2017 and Principal Controller of Defence Account (Pension) Circular No. 589. In Para 'c' of the above letter it is stated that 'the intention behind grant of condonation of deficiency in service for grant of service pension is that the individual must not be left high and dry but should be eligible for at least one service pension and in view of this, it is clarified for grant of second service pension. Submission of learned counsel for the applicant is that above Government of India, Ministry of Defence, letter dated 20.06.2017 being against Regulation 44 of the Pension Regulations for the Army, 2008 (Part I) and Ministry of Defence letter dated 14.01.2001 and Additional Director General Personnel Services (ADGPS) letter dated 26.09.2003 is ultra virus.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that Regulation 173 of Pension Regulation for the Army, 2008 (Part I), clearly says that grant of pensionary award to personnel of DSC shall be governed by the same Regulations as are applicable to personnel below officers' rank in the army except where they are inconsistent with the provisions of Regulations. Thus, he submits that Government of India, Ministry of Defence, letter dated 14.08.2001 and letter dated 26.02.2003 being equally applicable in case of applicant also, deficiency of 03 months and 05 days in minimum qualifying service is liable to be condoned and applicant is entitled to second service pension.

6. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents submits that intention behind condonation of service for grant of service pension being based on the policy that individual must not be left high and dry but should be eligible for at least one service pension and the same being not applicable for the second service pension in respect of DSC, Government of India has issued letter dated 20.06.2017, and keeping in view this letter and also that there is deficiency of about 03 months and 05 days in qualifying service, as such, applicant is not entitled to second service pension.

7. Having heard the submissions of learned counsel both sides and having gone through Regulation 44 of the Pension Regulations for the Army, 2008 (Part I) as well as Government of India, Ministry of Defence letter No. 14 (02)/2011-D(Pen/Pol) dated 20.06.2017, we find that issue regarding condonation of deficiency in minimum qualifying service regarding second service pension of DSC being cropped up in so many cases has not only been dealt with by the different Benches of the Armed Forces Tribunal but also by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Union of India Vs. Surender Singh Parmar in Civil Appeal No. 9389 of 2014, decided on 20.01.2015, and it has been held therein that deficiency in qualifying service upto one year is condonable. Taking note of the above and also that there is deficiency of less than one year in qualifying service of the applicant and the said deficiency is condonable under Regulation 44 of the Pension Regulations for the Army, 2008 (Part I), we find that applicant's claim regarding condonation of deficiency in qualifying service for the grant of second service pension has wrongly not been granted to the applicant.

8. Accordingly, Original Application No. 475 of 2022 is allowed. The shortfall of 03 months and 05 days in minimum qualifying service of the applicant in getting second service pension is condoned. Applicant is held entitled to get second service pension in DSC as well in addition to pension which he is already getting from the Army.

9. The respondents are directed to grant second service pension to the applicant from notionally completion of 15 years of DSC service. However, in view of Judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Shiv Dass vs. Union of India, reported in 2007 (3) SLR 445, the respondents are directed to pay arrears of second service pension w.e.f. three years preceding the date of filing of Original Application. The date of filing of Original Application is 01.05.2022. They are further directed to implement this order within a period of four months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order. Delay shall carry interest @ 8% per annum till actual payment.

10. No order as to costs.
